CP140 - Introduction to Perl Programming

Duration: 3 days

Audience:

Programmers of other Operating Systems comming to UNIX for the first time and anyone needing to learn how to read and write Born shell scripts of a simple to medium level of complexity.

Description:

This an introductary hands-on course that teaches the participant the basics of the Perl Programming Language.

Prerequisites:

UNIX Computer Fundamentals, a UNIX editor.

Topics:

1. An Introduction to Perl
2. The Perl Interpreter
3. Perl Operators
4. Perl Variables
5. Perl Variables & Arrays
6. Perl Variables & Hashes
7. Perl Statements
8. Perl Character Strings
9. Perl File Management
10. Perl Source Listings!

■
P.O. Box 307218
Columbus, Ohio 43230
+1 (866) 521-1776
http://www.corder.com

SAGE certification PREFERRED TRAINING PROVIDER

SAGE certification PREFERRED TRAINING PROVIDER